Convention.

A Mind-Reader Eclipses all Similar Performances in New York.

Chicago, September 10th.—The Republican State Convention met this morning. Hon, R. W. Thompson, ex-Secretary of the Democratic and Republican parties, the tariff, etc. The platform was then reported. It indorses the administration of President Harrison and the conduct of Speaker Reed, condemns the Democratic doctrine of free trade, favors reach process, approves the silver bill, favors the Lodge election bill, opposes the allen owner-ship of land, demands laws to prevent food adulteration, denonuces trusts and combinations, favors reasonable river and harbor improvements, deuconnecs White Cap outrages, demands local option, approves the "original package" bill and demands the election of United States Senators by a popular vote.

Every reference to Reed was greeted with prolonged applause. A resolution was adopted ordering the Secretary of the Convention to send a congratulatory message to Thomas B. Reed, "formerly of Maine, but now of the United States."

The plank indorsing Harrison is as follows: "We indorse the administration of Benjamin Harrison and the able statesmen selected as his collaborers and advisers as being wise, vigorous and partiodic. It has kept the pledges made to the people, has carefully guarded and zealously promoted their welfare, and elevated the condition of the public service. We heartily approve the actions of the Republicans of the Republican be relied upon to meet and solve great public questions, and have one more demonstrated its capacity for intelligent and partroid government."

The tariff plank reaffirms a belief in the Republican doctrine of protection to American industries, and commends the rolley of reciprocity propose.

For Judge of the Supreme Court, R. W. McBride; Attorney-General, John W. Lovett; Clerk of the Supreme Court, W. T. Nogle.

For Statistician, John Worrell of Hendricks county; Superintendent of Public Institution, James Henry of Morgan county; State Geologist, James M. Coulter of Hamilton county.

The Convention was one of the largest and most harmonious ever held by Indiana Republicans. Only one place on the ticket, Treasurer, required more than one ballot, and the contest in this case was settled without acrimony. References in the speeches to Reed, Blaine and Harrison were loudly applauded, the first named probably receiving the greatest share of hand-clapping indorsement. SOUTH CAROLINA DEMOCRATS. Two steamers went down the bay to meet the Teutonic—one with a party to greet Depew, and the other to meet Archbishop Corrigan.

They were taken off without waiting for the Teutonic to reach her pier.

Among the first to welcome Depew were General Manager Toucey and Vice-President Webb of the New York Central road.

Depew was conducted below, where he and Webb held a consultation.

Then luncheon was served. Loomis of the Webb held a consultation.

Then luncheon was served. Loomis of the New York Central delivered an address of welcome, in which he referred to the strike.

Depew, replying, said: "About me is the largest representation of the organization of the New York Central that during my Presidency has been gathered in any one place. I take it as testimony to the fact that the organization is a unit in its policy and its action. [Cheers.] I am not here to discuss questions which have been so ably discussed by Loomis, but to say that my two months' yacation, entered upon at been so ably discussed by Loomis, but to say that my two months' vacation, entered upon at the usual date and from which I returned at the usual date, left the management of the road in the hands of duly accredited officers, whom the directory believed fully competent to manage it in any difficulties that might arise, and they have demonstrated that my confidence has not been misplaced. [Cheers.] I noticed that one of the newspapers that came to me seemed to be discussing my Presidential chances. I want to state just here that in no movement of my life and in no utterauce that I make is the Preslife and in no utterance that I make is the Presidency of the United States in my mind. When I act as President of the Central road I act for the interests of that corporation, without any regard whatever to my political chances or operativities?

THE WORLD'S FAIR.

The Fight for Director-General Assum ing an Interesting Phase. CHICAGO, September 10th.—The Committee of Permanent Organization of the National Com-nissioners of the World's Fair decided to-day to make a personal visit of inspection to Jackson Park and its entire surroundings to-morrow. It is reported to-night that many members of this Commission, as well as other Commissioners who are in the city, are of the opinion that the entire World's Fair will be located at Jackson entire World's Fair will be located at Jackson Park, excepting, perhaps, the building of fine arts, which may be placed upon the lake front. The contest over the Director-Generalship is now assuming an interesting phase, and every National Commissioner of influence is sought after in favor of the various candidates. Tonight there are four members of the National Commission in Chicago, and others are constantly arriving. The National Commission will meet on Monday next.

Commissioner McDonald is very much interested in the great meeting of Californians which will be held in San Francisco to-morrow, when several hundred delegates, representing the government of each county in the State, and the commercial industries, scientific and educational associations of each county, will be present in a monster meeting for the weifare of cational associations of each county, will be present in a monster meeting for the welfare of California and the World's Fair.

Mr. McDonald said to an Associated Press representative to-day that the people of California will act promptly and decisively, and California can and will make an exhibit with an aim to surpass that of any other State in the United States, and he hoped that nothing will be left undone to further that end.

MURDERED BY INDIANS.

Extermination. MILES CITY (Mont.), September 10th. a murder had been committed and the body was awaiting his arrival. The messenger gives no further particulars, but, taken in connection with a letter received yesterday, it is supposed to account for the disappearance of Hugh Boyd, a young cattleman, who has been missing from a young cattleman, who has been missing from Lame Deer.

It is thought here that he was murdered by Indians. It was only last Saturday that Indians arrested on suspicion of the murder of Robert Ferguson last May were turned loose because of lack of evidence, and the Boyd murder following so closely will arouse the white settlers about the Cheyenne Reservation to war. They had declared this summer that if another white man was killed they would send the women and children out of the country and, together with the cowboys, wage a war of exter-

A Congressional Apportionment Bill Introduced in the House.

WELCOME TO CONGRESSMAN REED.

NEW YORK, September 10th.—The Tribune says: That was a splendid triumph of Republican principles and patriotism—the passing of the tariff bill with every Republican Senator recorded in its favor. Forty voted for the bill and the remaining seven were paired in favor, so that the vast insurrection which the Democrats have expected and predicted did not materialize to the extent of a single vete. single vote.

This is a bill to employ many thousand American laborers. It cuts off revenues no longer needed, but it puts new or more effective duties on certain foreign goods imported. The new tariff is expected to insure a larger market for American wool, and therefore a larger demand for labor and American wool-growers.

The Things expressly urges the removal of The Raum Investigation-

The Tribune earnestly urges the removal of such defects as still remain, so that the bill may be recognized by Republicans in all parts of the country as altogether the wisest and best tariff ever framed in this country. Condition of Grain Throughout the

Between the fast freight service and cold storage, New York and California are practically adjoining gardens. Assistant Chief Clerk Bryant of the Pension

He knew of no preference shown any rectionless retrouver. CHICAGO, September 10th.—Porter Bros. New York, September 10th.—The design of John H. Duncan for Grant's monument here has been accepted. Before the main entrance will stand an equestrian statue. The main edifice will be 100 feet square at the foundation, and will rise to an extreme hight of over 160 feet. It will rest on a base formed by rising tiers of steps. The interior will resemble somewhat the tomb of Napoleon, the ceiling terminating in a lofty dome. The crypt, destined to contain two coffins, may be viewed through a circular opening on the level of the main entrance. The ornamentation will conform with the general character of the building. The summit of the edifice will be surrounded by around colonnade, which is intended to give it an air of completeness. Either granite or marble will be chosen for the material.

Lewiston (Me.), September 10th.—The Even-ing Journal has returns from practically the whole State, footing up: Burleigh 63,565, Thomp-son 44,844, Clark 2,848, scattering 956. Repub-lican plurality, 18,721. The remaining places voted in 1886—Republicans 925, Democrats 814, scattering 106. them.
Cooper did not think the slips were equivalent to a Congressional call. The attorneys he signed for had been neglected, he was told. Lemon at that time had practically the control of the Pension Office. Witness felt then and now that if he could do anything to help his people he ought to do it. He felt that they had not a fair chance with the attorneys in Washington.
Cooper asked the committee to pass upon his resolution, referred to it, to extend the scope of the investigation. No decision was made and the committee adjourned. PORTLAND (Me.), September 19th.—The Auter-tiser has full Representative returns from ten counties in Maine, and partial returns from the remaining six. They indicate a Democratic gain of 12 Representatives, making the House stand 113 Republicans to 38 Democrats. The Senate stands 4 Democrats to 27 Republicans.

CONGRESSMAN REED.

Washington. GTON, September 10th.—Reed reached Washington this morning and appeared at the Capitol at about 11 o'clock. He went at once to of business.

The officials have been notified that a block of $1,700,000 in bonds will be presented on Friday, and other notices, swelling the total in sight to $50,000,000, have already been received. Capitol at about 11 o'clock. He went at once to his room, where he has since remained, seeing no one. It was expected that he would take his seat at the opening of the session, but he did not respond to the summons of the doorkeeper and Speaker pro tem. Burrows was called.

On his way to the Capitol the Speaker was warmly greeted by both Republicans and Democrats, and received congratulations on all hands. Later in the day he held a sort of imprombut reception in his room at the Capitol. CRESSON SPRINGS (Pa), September 10th.—Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. McKee are in the hands of a resident physician this evening. The latter has a touch of neuralgia. Mrs. Harrison's allment is by no means of a serious character, and with rest and quiet it will probably wear off in a few days.

The President was advised of the proceedings of the Republican Convention at Indianapolis, and was naturally pleased at the indorsement hands. Later in the day he held a sort of impromptu reception in his room at the Capitol, many members calling on him. His reason for not immediately taking the chair was because he thought it proper that Burrows should himself announce the fact. He (Burrows) had signed a number of bills which have passed the House.

A magnificent floral design adorned Speaker Reed's desk this morning, composed of roses and smilax bordering a large shield of white immortelles, on which was in blue immorte les, the word "Business." Surmounting the whole was an immense gavel of white immortelles, indicative of the power with which the Speaker wielded that emblem of authority. It is the gift of the enrolling clerks of the House.

Just before the hour of noon a page appeared, bearing in his arms the emblem of the State of Maine, a pine tree planted in a bed of maidenhair fern, and surmounted by a small silk American flag, and placed it on the Speaker's desk.

AN OUTBREAK FEARED

An Alarming Condition of Affairs Among the Nez Perces Indians.

San Francisco, September 10th.—A Chronicle special from Boise City, Idaho, says Governor sharp received a dispatch to-night from an old frontiersman and Indian-fighter named White, living at the meadows at the upper end of Long valley, near Salmon river, in Boise county, telling of an alarming condition of affairs among the Nez Perces Indians at that place.

The whole tribe is discontented on account of the death of their braves in the last war, and the recent loss of stock, and have been heard to threaten the whites and vow vengeance on them.

Governor Sharp has sent word to Captain Murray, who left Boise Barracks list Saturday with a troop of cavalry on a pleasure trip to Long Valley, to hasten to the Meadows by a forced march and keep the Indians in check, and also to have White counsel the settlers to moderation. The Governor also sent word to the In lian Agent at Lewiston to use every effort to get the Indians back on the reservation.

CROP REPORT.

Washington, September 10th.—The national crop report shows that the injury to the corn reported last month was intensified by the continuance of the drought in August, until the rain came, but it was too late for full recovery. The average is 70.1, against 73.3 last month, the l. west average since 1881.

On the Atlantic there is an improvement in corn since August 1st. A decline occurred in New York, Ohio, Illinois, and all the Northwestern States, and in some others of less importance. The crop is late in the Eastern States, requiring maturing weather throughout September. It is also late and variable in development in New York and Pennsylvania.

The Atlantic coas: States return a relatively high condition, impaired locally by the effects of a midsummer drought and later storms. In Tennessee, Mississippi, Arkansas and Texas, a drought reduced the condition too low for subsequent recovery.

Tennessee, Mississippi, Arkansas and Texas, a drought reduced the condition too low for subsequent recovery.

The Ohio valley and Missouri valley report a protracted drought and a low condition. While the rains of the last two weeks in August were beneficial, they have not restored the losses of the first half of the month. The lowest condition is in Kansas, though some of the eastern counties make good returns.

The Dakotas and Nebraska is a little bigher. The crop is late, and will require as much time to mature on the latitude of 40 degrees as for earlier varieties grown on the line of 42 degrees.

Returns of the condition of winter wheat at the time of harvesting are less favorable than on the lat of July. So far as thrashing has progressed the results are disappointing. The July average was 75.3 per cent.

The general average of spring wheat has also reduced from 83.2 to 79 8. The average for wheat of both kinds is 75.5. In 1888 the September average for wheat was 77. It was 73 in 1881.

The yield of spring wheat is unusually variable in the Dakotas, ranging from a high yield to five bushels and less per acre. The progress of thrashing will develop the extent of these differences. The rye yield is less than was expected. The condition, as reported, is reduced to 85.4.

The condition of bariey is not seriously lower, from 82.8 to 77.6. Buckwheat has fully maintained its August condition, the average being 90.5, against 90.1.

The figures for potatoes have fallen since August from 77.4 to 65.7, the lowest average yield ever reported, that of 1887, being 67.3. The reported percentage for fattening swine is 97 per cent, and their condition 93.7.

The Commission wished to know whether the witness had tried to put a stop to it.

Witness replied that he had not thought of putting a stop to it. The 35,000 cases put on the completed files by the office had been selected without partiality.

Judge Wilson said it had been stated that Cooper had signed a large number of blank calls upon the Pension Office for a firm of pension attorneys, and he would like to have Cooper make a statement about it.

Cooper said he authorized his clerk to sign a large number of calls for a pension firm in his district, understanding that it had been the custom. Perhaps there were 1,500 or 2,000 calls signed with his name. When he came to Washington he spoke to Chief Durnan in the Pension Office about it, and he doubted if it was fair to call up cases in that way, but he must act for his constituents. Durnan told him to sign the slips, and he would do what he could with them.

Cooper did not think the slips were equivalent to the Congressional call. The attorneys he slowed.

Highest of all in Leavening Power .- U. S. Gov't Report, Aug. 17, 1889.

THURSDAY SEPTEMBER 11, 1890 THE San Francisco press never tires, or rather it never puts a check upon its reporters who visit Sacramento on great occasions when there are large assemblages of people at the Capital City, in misrepresentation of our people concerning prices charged for entertaining strangers. We are constantly told that extortion is practiced generally here on such occasions though the truth is, that instances of overcharge are far less frequent in this city than in communities generally where there assemble large bodies of people de manding accommodations of a good order. On the occasion of the Native Sons' cele bration in San Francisco this week, our metropolitan neighbors proved that for the matter of putting up prices they can give all other communities lessons. In many cases the most indifferent cheap lodgings were charged up to strangers at the high est first-class rates, and many a man got a shake down or a lounge for a night's rest only at the risk of bankrupting his pocket The Accommodation Committee was energetic, did the best it could, and sent it guests to the best quarters listed to them, but in numerous cases accomodations were procurable only at an extortionate rate. Yet it is not probable that the committees could have done any better than they did for the accommodation of their guests. On the day of the parade the proprietors of houses along the line of march put up the prices of sittings at windows enormously. The most ordinary narrow and confined window could not be had for three hours at less than $10 to accommodate three people, while bow windows | FRENCH TANSY WAFERS for eight commanded from $40 to $20, and a single sitting on the fourth floor of a house with bow windows was not anywhere less than $2 50. To rent a room with two windows of the ordinary flat sisted these outrageous exactions, and pre-ferred to stand in the street, whereupon the seat proprietors came down to 50 cents, the seat proprietors came down to 50 cents, and were glad to secure that price. Many of the window extortioners failed to get customers and were to be found begging for customers and were to be found begging for customers and were to be found begging for constant and the seat proprietors came down to 50 cents, and must be accompanied by a certified check or cash for an amount not less than ten per cent. of the aggregate of the proposal, as a guarantee for the faithful performance of the terms of the bid.

The Board reserves the right to reject any constant and the proposal as a guarantee for the faithful performance of the terms of the bid. the seat proprietors came down to 50 cents, patrons, just before the parade began, offering their goods at half the price asked theretofore. The only purpose we have in citing these attempts to take advantage, and which infected even the bootblacks and barbers, who put up prices quite generally, is to show our San Francisco friends that human nature is pretty much the same everywhere, and that they who live in glass houses should not throw stones. We have been at pains in many seasons to ascertain the exact truth concerning alleged acts of extortion on the part of Sacramentans when there is a great demand for accommodation, and have found such acts to be the exception and fair prices and broad hospitality the rule.

THE great celebration in San Francisco on Tuesday was well managed. The orders for the march were strictly obeyed, and bore the evidence of good judgment having been their author. There was promptness in moving the procession, excellence in the distribution of the more attractive features of the line, finish in the spectacular effects, and admirable management of the marching forces. Good order was preserved throughout, the committees were solicitous in their endeavors to accommodate, and courteous in their attendance upon guests. There were a few individual exceptions where the investment with brief authority upset the equilibrium of certain young men and gave them occasion to make themselves ridiculous, but these very few exceptions only made the good management the more conspicuous. The authorities are entitled to especial credit for their vigilance, forbearance, good judgment and patience in managing the immense crowds which thronged the streets. The city was very handsomely AND POULTRY.

UNQUESTIONABLY the personal element was a strong one in the return of Speaker Reed by his Maine constituency. But beyoud that the election testified to a strong sentiment on the part of the voters of Maine in support of the position assumed by Mr. Reed regarding the "majority' question, which gave rise to his famou ruling, and that afterwards crystallized rior Court on into "Rule Fifteen" of the House. In fact the people of Maine have reflected the sentiment of the vast majority of the people of the United States that Congressmen chosen, who accept the trust and qualify, must attend to their duties unless excused by the House, and when refusing to vote and expedite public business, that they shall be counted as of the number required for the transaction of the business of the assembly. That question was fairly and explicitly before the people of Maine, and they voted with the clear understanding that it was a party issue, the decision of which comes at the last to the ballotto vote and expedite public business, that | OFFER FOR SALE, AT box. THE TRUSTEES YIELD TO THE DE-MAND OF THE PEOPLE.

Wolf and McLaughlin Vote for the Electric Road-Work Will Be Commenced Immediately.

Sacramento will have the electric road, after all.

The Board of City Trustees so decided yesterday afternoon by a unanimous vote, after about two hours and a half of hemming and hawing explanations, and bickering among themselves. The meeting was called to order at 1.39 o'clock by Mayor Comstock, who announced that it was a regular meeting of the Board and for the purpose of considering any matters that might come before it. After the minutes of the last meeting had been read by Clerk McKee, P. E. Platt, President of the Board of Trade, and also a member of the special committee appointed by that body to look into the matter of the proposed new electric road, arose and addressed the Trustees. Mr. Platt said the Board of Trade was interested in all matters tending to advance the city, and was anxious that capitalists and others desiring to invest in Sacramento should be encouraged rather than driven amento should be encouraged rather than driven away. It had taken up the matter of the proposed here easily and was anxious that capitalists and others desiring to invest in Sacramento should be encouraged rather than driven amento should be encouraged rather than d away. It had taken up the matter of the proposed electric road tranchise, and a mass meeting had been held at its rooms, at which the unanimous sentiment was expressed that the franchise should be allowed properly restricted—and the committee of which he was a member was delegated to inform the Trustees that such was the case. ber was delegated to inform the Trustees that such was the case.

Thomas L. Enwright, also of the committee, substantiated what Mr. Platt had said. In referring to the mass meeting he said the only objection found was to the "forfeiture clause" of what was known as the "McLaughlin amendment," which provided that the Trustees could, by a majority vote, order down all the poles and wires of the electric road after ninety days' notice and without cause. It was a proposition that no business man of sense would accept.

M'LAUGHLIN WANTS TO KNOW. "Well, Mr. Enwright," said Trustee McLaugh-lin, when the speaker had finished, "were there any reasons given at that meeting why that clause was objectionable?"

Mr. Enwright replied that the main objection

At this juncture J. H Henry informed the Trustees that if the matter suffered another postponement he would withdraw his application for an amendment to the franchise. He said his contract with the Central Street Rail way Company would expire within twenty-four hours, and after that time he would have no authority to accept any franchise from the Board. Consequently he asked that the matter be settled one way or the other before adjourn-Mr. McLaughlin declared that he did not but this wouldn't do, either. Then the Mayor sent for City Attorney Hart, and when that official arrived, stated the case to him. Mr. Hart pa mptly declared that the meeting was a regular one. Still McLaughlin objected. Mr. Henry said he was willing to take chances on the legality of the meeting, should the franchise be granted. Several of the Board of Trade men said they didn't see how it could be other than a regular meeting, as both Monday and Tuesday were holdlays. But still McLaughlin persisted that he should be convinced before he would vote. Even Trustee Wolf did not agree with the Major, and dectared that he considered it a regular meeting.

The discussion was at its hight when Thomas Hague, who was among the large audience present, asked permission to say something in his capacity as a citizen. The meeting of the was a ladder and an augur and go about and see how many awning posts are rotten in the center.

A YOUNG MAN'S RING

resent, asked permission to say something in his capacity as a citizen. He was granted the desired permission and forthwith proceeded to address the Board on the advantages of electric roads to property-owners and to the city generally; why capital should be encouraged, and BLANCHARD HAS HIS SAY. George A. Blanchard, the attorney who drew up the now celebrated "McLaughlin amend-ment," next took the floor, and, after reading up the now celebrated "McLaughlin amendment," next took the floor, and, after reading sections of the proposed franchise, announced that at the present time a road was in operation in Newport, R. I., under just such restrictions as had been proposed in the McLaughlin amendment. He said the local newspapers had styled it the "torfeiture" clause, and had assailed his intelligence and ability as a lawyer for having given it to McLaughlin. The clause had been pronounced monstrous on the presumption that the Trustees would do something monstrous under its provisions. "But," concluded attorney Blanchard, "to meet the desire of the people and to encourage the investment of capital. Trustee McLaughlin has suggested that I revise what has been termed the forfeiture clause of his amendment." He then proceeded to read the reconstructed clause. Instead of giving the Trustees full power to order down po es and wires, and annul the contract, as did the celebrated original, it now provided that "the Trustees shall not order down said poles and wires, unless it shall appear to them, after a full and fair hearing, that said poles and wires are dangerous to life or property, or are a public nuis-gerous to life or property, or are a public nuis-his finger at the Mayor, said that although he (McLaughlin) had been getting all the blame for introducing the amendment, it was just as much the Mayor's amendment as his.

The Mayor talked back, and backers.

McLaughlin corroborated this, and, shaking his finger at the Mayor, said that although he (McLaughlin) had been getting all the blame for introducing the amendment, it was just as much the Mayor's amendment as his.

The Mayor talked back, and business was delayed for some minutes until they had it out. When they had, Mr. Henry announced that he was entirely satisfied with the "forfeiture" clause as readjusted and stripped of its ambiguity.

The Mayor smiled and looked happy, and said he guessed they had better take a vote. But all was not plain sailing yet.

Attorney Blanchard had the floor again, and a copy of the Political Code in his hand. He read Section 509 of the State law covering the granting of street railway franchises, and maintained that under it no city or town in the State had the power to give a franchise for an electric road; that the law only provided for horsecars and cable-cars.

Atther the Mayor sailed althe blame to the morning and evening flights.

Last year the geese came much earlier, several flocks having passed over the city on the night of the 17th of August. Running back was the paper's files for a period of fif een years, they are found to have presented themselves on the following dates: 1888, August 16th; 1887, September 12th; 1885, September 12th; 1885, September 12th; 1885, September 12th; 1885, September 13th; 1876, August 14th.

Mr. Henry, in replying to Blanchard's argument, said it was too late now to talk about disment, said it was too late how to talk about dis-allowing a franchise to run an electric road. The Trustees had allowed that in the original franchise given to the Central road. All he was asking for now was permission to put up poles and wires. He had nothing to do with the elec-tric part of it—that was in his purchase of the ral road's franchise. orney Blanchard said that many had been

Attorney Blanchard said that many had been misled in the matter because a road already existed in San Jose, in defiance of the law.

Mr. Henry retorted rather hotly that other storneys had opinions in the matter as well as Mr. Blanchard. He said he hadn't invested two hundred and thirty thousand dollars in San Jose without first knowing what he was doing. Neither had the Los Angeles and San Diego people. Neither had the company which is now expending half a millton in Oakland on an electric road. Mr. Henry added that even if it were wrong, he would have to suffer, and

But McLaughlin was not ready yet. He had a grievance and wanted to give vent to his feelings before the matter was disposed of. He complained of the manner in which he had been treated by the press and public, and declared that he had been in favor of Mr. Henry's proposition all along. He denied that he had been waiting to be bought, and that he was a "boodler." He said his reputation was as good as any newspaper man's in town.

Wolf joined in, too, and delared that he was only looking after the interests of the city.

The Mayor said the stand taken by the other Trustees had worried him dreadfully, and he living on L street, between Fourth and Fifth. e. McLaughlin was not ready yet. He had

The public had been too hasty, and so had those people who had been talking about tarring and feathering him.

Mr. Henry tried to pour oil on the troubled waters by dec aring that neither McLaughlin nor Wolf, nor any one else, had approached him, either directly or indirectly, for "boodle," and wolf, nor ally one else, and approached, and he added that even if they had it would have done them no good, as they would not get it.

Mr. Henry's effort, however, availed but little. It was only a few minutes before McLaughlin, Wolf and the Mayor began to tell of their troubles. The Mayor accused the latter two of trying to bully ag him, and run things to suit themselves. This they both deried, and so it went on for nearly half an hour, while the audience waited patiently for them to get through.

"Yes, it's all out of order," said rhe Mayor, "but McLaughlin had to air himself." He then asked the other Trustees if they were ready, and, upon their replying in the affirmative, the roll was ordered called.

"The ordinance granting the original franchise covers all that," suggested Mr. Platt, and Mr. Enwright nodded approvingly.

"Yes, and it would stick in the courts for five years before the city could get them down," replied McLaughlin.

McLaughlin next wanted to know by what authority the Board of Trade committee presumed to ask the Trustees how they were going to vote on the electric road matter, and he was informed by Mr. Enwright that every citizen had the right to ask the Trustees questions.

NO TIME TO LOSE.

At this juncture J. H. Henry informed the Trustees that if the matter suffered another postponement he would withdraw his application for an amendment to the franchise. He

The regular meeting day was Monday, and here the Board was in session Wednesday; consequence of the Street Commissioner, for it had the Board was in session Wednesday; consequently it was a special meeting.

Mayor Comstock started as though somebody had prodded him with a pin. "It's a regular meeting," he declared. "Didn't I announce it as such when I opened the meeting?"

"Well, that don't make it so," retorted Mc-Laughlin. "That's a legal question, and you've got nothing to do with it."

"We'll take a vote on it, then," suggested the Mayor.

The trial of Miss Nora Wright, charged with petit larceny, took place in the Police Court yeswhy 'progress' should be the motto of the day. He never mentioned McLaughlin's special meeting bugaboo, and the result was that by the time he had finished said bugaboo had a ring of the value of some 400. A young man named Utterbach lent Miss McGrath his ring for a few days, and he has not seen it since.
Miss McGrath swore that one evening, about two weeks ago, the Wright girl snatched the ring from her and ran away with it.
Miss Wright claimed that she merely asked to look at the ring, and after examining it gave it back immediately.

Before taking his seat, Mr. Blanchard announced that at the meeting of last week, before he gave Trustee McLaughlin the amendment, he had read it to the Mayor who apment, he had read it to the Mayor who apment, be had read it to the factor of the tule section. In a few weeks the stubble-fields will be thronged with geese, and the farmers' boys will be highing behind the fences ne he gave Trustee McLaughlin the amend-ent, he had read it to the Mayor who ap-roved it.

Mr. Euwright replied that the main objection was that the forfeiture clause was unfair, and one on which no business man would be justified in risking his money.

McLaughlin suggested that the Trustees could not afford to order the poles and wires down without cause.

"Well," said Mr. Enwright, rather ironically, "it's haid to tell what Trustees will do sometimes."

McLaughlin and Wolf looked at each other and laughed, and then McLaughlin, turning again to Mr. Enwright, said the city should have some power by which to order down the poles and wires should they prove dangerous. Coming Thick and Fast.

Justice Henry is in a distressed frame of mind. Some days ago there was published in these columns a note which he found under his door and addressed to him. This statement has set people to work trying.

Mr. Grismer will have the leading character, James Carleton, in which, when the play was given here before, he achieved flattering success. Miss Della Maquard will take the difficult male juvenile part of Ned. This young lady, a California development, is a new face up in the stage. Miss Sara Stevens, one of the best stock actresses of the day, is in this company and will to-night appear in a dual role, and Miss Loyola O'Connor, also, we believe, a native of California, is cast for the exceedingly difficult part of Jennie Clegg, and Mr. Hermance will have the part of Old Simon, one of the very best of recent "old men" parts written into the modern drama. There being only one bid for graveling and grading Fourth street, between R and S, the matter was left open until Monday.
The application of John Bauer for permission to improve the appearances of his awning at Third and J streets, was referred to Trustee McLaughlin for investigation.
A bill was received from the Huntington-Hopkins Company, for shovels furnished the city last winter for work on the levees. As there were some more bills of this kind on hand, the whole matter was laid over until Monday at 3 P. M. The petition of property-owners for an electric light at Seventeenth and P streets was referred to the street Commissioner.

POLICE COURT. A Four Days' Collection of

Disposed Of. Yesterday's Police Court calendar was a long one, being made up of the harvest of the police for the preceding four days and a number of continued cases. John Rennick, Mike Brady Jack Brady, Mike Delaney, John Fay, Jack Smith and Patrick McGee were all charged with having been drunk on the public streets. Rennick was rather feeble-minded, and the Court allowed him to go. Fay said he had not been arrested before for twenty-five years, and this assertion had the effect of working a disthis assertion had the effect of working a discharge for him.

The Brady family came in for the fines, Mike being taxed $10 and Jack $5. Delaney failed to answer when he was called by the Bailiff, and his deposit was declared forfeited.

McGee told a novel story. He said he came to town the other day, suffering from a dose of poison oak. He went to a druggist to get some medicine, but the clerk there advised him to go and get drunk on whisky—that poison killed poison. McGee acted on the advice and landed in jail. Under these circumstances the Court discharged the defendant.

The case of E. Smith, charged with disturbing the peace, was continued until to-day.

The charge of petit larceny sgainst Ed. Rand was dismissed. He was accused of stealing copperas from the City Jail yard, but said he took the disinfectant to a police officer's house, as

The case of Lottie Lafferty, charged with grand larceny, was dismissed for want of evi-dence. The prosecuting witness failed to put in n appearance. Christocher Metz accused of indecent expos are, and James Douglass, charged with battery, and their trials set for Saturday. The case of Ah Loon, charged with battery, was continued until to-day.

Said to Be at the Bay. Friends of Chief Engineer O'Meara, of the Fire Department, say that he has not left the city permanently, but is in San Francisco, and that he will probably return in a day or two. It is also said in his behalf that he told one of the Fire Commissioners that he was going away for a time.

First Assistant Engineer Guthrie reluctantly stated that he knew nothing of the Chief's whereabouts, and that he had been chided by Commissioner Howard for having kept secret for several days the fact that Chief O'Meara had absented himself from his duty.

The Chief's many friends hope he has not permanently abandoned the city.

Army Officers Banished—The Boulangist Cause—Three Hussars' Drowned.

Imperiate Ca

cial Backers.

London, September 10th.—The revelations by the Paris Figaro show that the Duchess of Duze gave six hundred thousand francs to the Boulangist cause, but would not mix herself in the petty intrigues of the party. In an interview she confirms all that Meermieux said concerning her part in the affair, and had arranged an interview with the Comte de Paris at Boulanger's request. Ostensibly it was an accidental meeting between the Comte de Paris and Boulanger, at her hotel. The Duchess speaks somewhat bitterly of Boulanger's lack of courage. The Paris correspondent of the London Times says that everyone mentioned in the revolu-tions suffers more or less in honor excepting the Duchess of Duze, who, without hope of realizing any return, seemed to desire to play the role of a pecuniary Jean of Arc.

Three Hussars Drowned. Berlin, September 10th.—During the maneuvers of the German troops to day at Mulberg, a town of Prussian Saxony on the river Elbe, three of the Hussars were drowned while trying to swim their horses across the river. Several others of the Hussars narrowly escaped the same fate, and were rescued from the river with great difficulty. The stream had been greatly swollen by the floods in Austria, and the current was unusually strong.

Union of Spain and Portugal. Paris September 10th.—A banquet was given by a member of the Russian press last evening to Senor Magalhaes, a prominent Portuguese ournalist. Senor Magalhaes made a speech, in the course of which he protested against the British tutelage under which the Braganza dynasty had placed Portugal, and advocated the union of Portugal and Spain. Senor Zorilla, a noted Spanish agitator, made a similar address. Army Officers Banished.

HELSINGFORS, September 10th.—Four army officers, one of them a Major-General, have been banished to Siberia for theft of money and property belonging to the Government. It is feared corruption is deep-rooted in the army. Earthquake and Cholera. MADRID, September 10th.—There was a strong shock of earthquake at Malaga to-day.

In Valencia to-day twenty-fqur new cases of cholera and seven deaths were reported.

plaints as Rheumatism, Rheumatic Gout, and the like, are thoroughly eradicated by the use of this wonderful alterative. Mrs. R. Irving Dodge, 110 West 125th street, New York, certifies:-"About two years ago, after suffering for nearly two years from rheumatic gout, being able to walk only with great discomfort, and having tried various remedies, including mineral waters, without relief, I saw by an advertisement in a Chicago paper that a man had been relieved of this distressing com-plaint, after long suffering, by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I then decided to make a trial of this medicine, and took it regularly for eight months. I am pleased to say that it effected a complete cure, and that I have since had no return of the disease.' Mrs. L. A. Stark, Nashua, N. H., writes: "One year ago I was taken ill with rheumatism, being confined to my house six months. I came out of the sickness very much debilitated, with no appetite, and my system disordered in every way. I commenced to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla and began to improve at once, gaining in strength and soon re-covering my usual health. I cannot say

"I have taken a great deal of medicine, but nothing has done me so much good as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I felt its beneficial effects before I had quite finished one bottle, and I can freely testify that it is the best blood-medicine I know of."—L. W. Ward. Sr.,

I have been working all day in the garden at my new house, and am so sore and stiff I can hardly move. DOCTOR. Every athlete, and any person doing hard muscular labor, has experienced at times that soreness and stiffness of the muscles as if they had shrunk and contracted. How difficult and painful it is to get limbered up! The benefit of a soothing lotion like POND'S EXTRACT is incalculable. All turfmen understand that very well; they use great quantities of it in care of their high-bred horses. Those who are training for any athletic event should thoroughly rub their muscles after exercising with POND'S EX-TRACT if they would prevent stiffness and keep the muscles in fine condition. Accept no substitute for Pond's Extract. Made only by Pond's Extract Ço., New York and London. Beware of imitations. MISCELLANEOUS.
